

Boarding

Airport staff announce boarding if the plane is ready to take on passengers. Before leaving the departure hall passengers are obliged to provide the ground staff with their boarding card and with the identity document. Passengers may get on the plane by walking along the boarding bridge or they are transported by airport bus.

Go to: At the airport - guide