

Wrocław and Lower Silesia

Wrocław, the capital city of Lower Silesia, the fourth biggest city in Poland, is not only a dynamic economic centre, but also one of the most beautiful cities in Poland. The cultural offer of Wrocław can compete with that of other European metropolises. Its magnificent Market Square, as well as boulevards along the Oder River invite you for walks day and at night; at night you may admire breath-taking illuminations of bridges and monuments at the Oder. Thousands of tourists who visit our city more and more willingly are the best testimony to openness and hospitality of Wrocław inhabitants.

Recommended links:

www.visitwroclaw.eu - visit the official tourism page of Wrocław

www.investinwroclaw.pl/en/

www.wroclaw.pl - visit the official page of Wrocław

Lower Silesia is one of the most rapidly developing region in Poland. The biggest international companies find it profitable to invest here. The region is also very attractive for tourists. The wide range of entertainments, winter ski-centers and SPAs attract visitors from all over Europe.

Recommended links:

www.dolnyslask.info.pl - be up-to-date with the news from the region, find out about tourist attractions, check cycle paths, walking, horse-riding and ski routes and look up your hotel.

www.umwd.pl - visit the official website of the Lower Silesia Marshal Office